At any rate the air will be clearer and purer on Sundays.

These times cities go up fast when the fire flend gets after them. Notice the result at Revere beach.

Just as we curtail on sugar we are allowed to increase our allowance of wheat. The balances are at work.

As they contemplate the fast passing of their comrades by death, the U. S. senators may well wonder who is next.

People who have ridden in automobiles on Sunday can no doubt benefit themselves by returning to nature's mode of locomotion. Walking will do them good.

American men above 45 years of age need not feel that they are being discriminated against, for they can enlist in the ordnance and quartermaster's departments.

Bleas of South Carolina seems in a fair way to go along with Vardaman of Mississippi. For these favors the American people ought to be grateful to the voters of those two states.

The Vermont editors who are trying to stir up sentiment in politics are having a hard time of it in the face of the tremendously greater events that are taking place on the other side of the water and of many events that are transpiring on this side. Politics may not be adjourned, as the president asserted, but it is the next thing to it.

In less than two months the Germans have lost approximately 10 divisions in men captured by the allies. The prisoners in such fighting as this make up only a small proportion of the total casualties, so it may be taken for granted that the German high command has been deprived of over half a million soldiers at least in the comparatively short time of two months.

War is no longer a plaything of German royalty. Crown Prince Rupprecht has been deprived of his toys, and the German crown prince is likely to be the next one to be relieved. As long as things were not going badly for Germany these sons of royal houses were permitted to have some voice in military maneuvers. That Germany realizes she is facing a critical condition is indicated by the reported withdrawal of Crown Prince Rupprecht.

The pronouncement which General Pershing issued to the first and the third corps of the American army in France reflects the sentiment of the American people in so far as they are able to judge of the situation through the reports of the battles in which the corps were engaged. The statement gives the soldiers high praise for courage and stability and, in fact, credits them with contributing much toward the initial success of the allies' counter-attack on the Marne river which has swept back the German hordes almost to the line from which they started last March. To New England people the statement by General Pershing is particularly pleasing because the two corps mentioned embrace the 26th division, which is made up of New England troops, men who entered the service early during the outbreak of the war, coming from our own circles, as it were. That they have performed in such a manner as to elicit high praise from their commanding officer, as well as from the officers of our allies, is a matter that is particularly pleasing.

MORE WHEAT BUT DON'T BE WASTEFUL.

In another column of to-day's paper will be found an official statement announcing the change of the government regulations regarding the purchase and use of wheat throughout the United States. It will be noticed that on and after Sept. 1 it will be permitted to buy wheat and substitutes in the proportion of four and one instead of pound for pound, as has been in vogue for many months. That is, the purchaser need take only a pound of the substitutes to four pounds of wheat. This change in the government regulation will come as a welcome relief to nearly all the population of the country, for it is to be assumed that nearly all the people have been patriotic enough to follow the spirit and the letter of the restrictions as to the purchase and the use of wheat. As we understand it, there is not enough wheat reserve to permit the American people to be wasteful in the use of wheat; we must still exercise reasonable caution and use substitutes approximately to the extent of the proportion allowed in purchase. We shouldn't spoil what we have accomplished in months of abnegation.

SUNDAYS WITHOUT GASOLINE.

Although the prohibition comes with considerable force to many people who have been accustomed to take their weekly recreation by a short automobile ride, the regulation imposed by the federal fuel administration against the use of automobiles, motorcycles and motorboats

You can run in any time and find we never run out of desirable patterns in shirts.

on Sundays will be accepted with good grace by the general public because of the realization that the government is not imposing any restrictions which are not necessary to the winning of the war. If the American people can help to win the war by refraining from the use of their automobiles, motorcycles and motorboats during 24 hours they will be perfectly willing to contribute that much, along with many other different kinds of contributions, in order to back up the million and a half Americans who are already there and the two millions and a half more who are expected to be transported across the seas. Indeed, the American people have with few exceptions fallen in with the proposals that have come from the officials in Washington from time to time, knowing well that the officials are cognizant of conditions which the average citizen has no means of being acquainted with. We are putting faith in our officials and we have not been deceived as yet. Nor do we expect to be deceived in matters of this nature. If there is likely to be a shortage of gasoline and if the American soldiers and our allies are likely to be hampered in their prosecution of the war it is up to us to forego the pleasures of Sunday automobile riding for a time until the danger of a shortage is past. When that danger is past the federal officials will notify us and relieve us of the obligation to abstain. Be cheerful.

YOUNG GIRL FORGER.

Elizabeth Taft of Burlington Was Placed on Probation.

Burlington, Aug. 29.—A 14-year-old forger, who went at the business like an old-timer, was in city court yesterday afternoon when Elizabeth Taft of 21 Elmwood avenue pleaded guilty to forging and cashing three checks. She was released on probation with a sentence of the remainder of her minority in the industrial school at Vergennes in case she violates the provisions of the probation.

The Taft girl took the checks from the office of the Kent Ice Cream company. They were drawn on three different people in the employ of the concern and none had been endorsed. The total amount was in the vicinity of $90. Elizabeth then went to work on them and first endorsed them with the name of the person to whom they were made out and then endorsed them herself. No attempt was made to disguise the handwriting, but some erasures of the names that were first placed on the checks made the writing look so different that a casual glance would not reveal the fact that it was done by the same hand. She then went to three different stores and cashed them.

In one store she bought two shirts for her father. In another she paid a bill that her mother owed and in another she bought some clothes for her sister. She had been working as nurse girl at the salary of $1.75 per week and explained the fact that she had received the money that way.

The persons who paid the money for the checks all expressed a desire to Grand Jury White that she be placed on probation. Her father stated in court that she had never troubled him before and Judge Stearns gave her another opportunity to walk the straight path.

CONGRESSMEN RENOMINATED.

In Michigan's Primary—Newberry Gains in Senatorial Contest.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 29.—The six congressmen who were opposed for renomination at Michigan's primary election on Tuesday have been renominated, according to virtually complete unofficial returns to-day.

Joseph W. Fordney won his tenth consecutive nomination by a victory in the eighth district. The others renominated are Frank D. Scott, Charles A. Nichols, and Gilbert A. Currie. All but Doremus are Republicans.

In the Republican senatorial contest late and nearly complete returns only added to Commander Truman H. Newberry's already abnormal lead over Henry Ford and former Governor Chase S. Osborn. In the Democratic gubernatorial contest, John W. Bailey of Battle Creek, is 3,000 votes in the lead in incomplete returns.

GOV. STEPHENS AHEAD.

With State of California About One-Sixth Counted.

San Francisco, Aug. 29.—Governor William D. Stephens has won the Republican nomination for governor of California. He led to-day his closest contestant, Mayor James Rolph of San Francisco, by more than 12,000 votes, with about one-sixth of the state's precinct still to report their returns in Tuesday's primary election.

Mayor Rolph, a Republican, was well ahead in the race for the Democratic nomination for governor, outdistancing Francis J. Heney by 17,000 votes. Under the California laws Mayor Rolph, unless the official count of the remaining precincts should overturn Governor Stephens' lead, cannot become the Democratic candidate, having lost the nomination of his own party.

JEANNETTE RANKIN BEHIND.

In the Race for Senatorial Nomination in Montana.

Helena, Mont., Aug. 29.—Returns from 882 precincts of 1,403 in the state received early to-day showed that in the state-wide primary Tuesday, Dr. C. M. Landstrum polled 15,249 votes for the Republican nomination for United States senator. Miss Jeannette Rankin polled 12,128 votes.

SAY GOV. GRAHAM

AGREED TO RESIGN

Members of Republican State Committee Report That They Have Not Found That He Has Done So.

Bellows Falls, Aug. 29.—At the meeting of the Republican state committee held in Burlington Aug. 16, J. Rolf Searles of St. Johnsbury, Chauncey S. Skinner of Orleans and Harold E. Fairchild of Fairfield, all members of the committee, were delegated to visit Governor Horace F. Graham and inform him regarding the action of the committee on requesting his resignation. They visited the governor on Aug. 17 and their report to the committee was yesterday received by its secretary, Colonel John E. Piddock of Saxtons River. Mr. Piddock gives the following synopsis:

The report in substance states that the committee called on Governor Graham on Saturday afternoon Aug. 17. After a long conference concerning the situation and the question of just how the resignation should be made, the governor said he did not wish to resign until the Tuesday night following Aug. 20, in order that he might make some minor appointments, not, as he expressed it, that he wanted the opportunity to make these appointments, but to avoid any question of the legality of the same if made later. The report says the governor gave the committee his absolute assurance that his resignation would be tendered by Tuesday night, Aug. 20, at the latest. The governor indicated that he thought inasmuch as his oath of state, that his resignation should be filed in that office. The report also states that up to Aug. 26 the committee was unable to find that the governor had presented his resignation as promised. The committee feel that they have done everything possible to voice the sentiments and carry out the expressions of conference held at Burlington on Friday, Aug. 16.

GRAND LABOR DAY CELEBRATION

PICNIC AND GAMES

AT CALEDONIA PARK

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 2, 1918

WIN THE WAR FOR FREEDOM

"Win the War for Freedom!"

That is the Labor Day thought of America's workers and that will be their thought until the war for freedom is won.

"Win the War for Freedom" is inscribed upon the banners of America's workers to-day in every city and hamlet. It is the message that will be spoken from every platform. It is the song of every heart.

"Win the War for Freedom" because it is a war for freedom and because only through victory can there be freedom. The working people of America are conscious of their vital part in making victory possible, and they will do their part, not as a task, but as a right—a right to share in the work of securing forever that freedom which they prize above all things.

We need have no recourse to rhetoric to state our case. The facts are simply stated, but of supreme importance. Our Democracy is assailed, our liberty is in jeopardy. Autocracy challenges our sacred rights.

We count it our most sacred duty to win safety for our freedom and our democracy, for only when they are safe can life give to us its opportunities and its values.

"Win the War for Freedom!" To that proposition we dedicate our labor and our lives as Americans and as workers. It is the supreme purpose of our lives on this Labor Day!

—By SAMUEL GOMPERS, President of the American Federation of Labor.
